Expressions of sorrow and praise continue to come in as we say aloha to Ron Valenciana.

Randy Rarick, Executive Director of Van's Triple Crown of Surfing: "There are few people who gave so much, and got so much back."

State Senator Donovan Dela Cruz: "Ron played a major role in our community at every level. He was truly an unsung hero; never taking credit and never limiting what he gave from his efforts, pocketbook and heart."

City Council Chair Ernie Martin: "Ron Valenciana was a beloved member of the North Shore community. As editor and publisher of the North Shore News, he provided a connection for thousands of area residents with information about important events and issues in their neighborhoods. As Pastor of the popular Once A Month Church, Ron was constantly on a charitable mission to bring hope to the less fortunate in the community. He worked tirelessly to provide spiritual and physical comfort to everyone in his North Shore congregation. His passing is a tremendous loss for the entire community. Our deepest sympathy goes out to his wife Alexia. He will be sorely missed."

Former Governor Linda Lingle: "The North Shore community has suffered a tremendous loss with Ron's passing. His love and aloha will be sorely missed by all those whose lives he touched."

Tony Boquer: "What an awesome send off to Ron. He really touched so many lives and it was so evident by the different groups of people in attendance."

Jim Creed: "One of Ron's favorite lines that always got a great response was after the ceremony and license signing. He would pull his camera out of his pocket and take a picture of the bride and groom then tell them he was doing it so he could prove to his wife that he went to work today. The couple loved it."

Waialua Farmers Co-op Market celebrates 12th Anniversary

*Delphine Otineru
President, Waialua Farmers Cooperative*

The Waialua Farmers Co-op Market is 12 years old! We opened for business in 2000 and are celebrating our 12th anniversary of serving the North Shore community. The market is conveniently located at the old Sugar Mill and is open Saturdays from 8:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m., and on Wednesday afternoons from 4:00 to 7:00. For more information please visit our website at www.waialuafarmerscooperativemarket.com.

Our market is an extension of the Waialua Farmers Cooperative, which was started in 1996 when the Waialua Sugar Mill ceased operations. Many of the former sugar mill employees formed the Farmers Cooperative and began farming on lands leased from Dole Foods. Today there are 60 farmers in the Cooperative growing a wide variety of produce and many of those farmers sell their produce at the farmers market.

We created this market so the Cooperative farmers would have a place to sell their produce directly to the community. We have grown from just a handful of vendors in the beginning to nearly 30 today, and there are plans to add more vendors and expand the market area. We are a true grass-roots farm organization. The market vendors donate their time and effort to run the market, and contribute a weekly fee which is used to support the market operations and to support the farmers of the Cooperative. The market also provides free space to schools and other non-profit community organizations to assist them in fund raising efforts.

Our market features locally-grown produce, plants, and prepared food items, and will soon be expanding to include locally made art and craft items from the North Shore. In order to provide full service and convenience to shoppers, and as a service especially to the seniors within our community, we also offer a limited amount of mainland produce to supplement a well-balanced nutritional food approach.

We wish to say MAHALO to all of you who have supported our market over the years, and a big ALOHA to those who have yet to come and experience our market. Come visit us and you will be pleasantly surprised at the ample parking, the wide selection of affordable locally-grown produce, and the friendly family atmosphere of our market!

Remembering Ron

by Melvin Amantiad and the North Shore Seniors

I met Ron after my mom, Sally Amantiad, passed away. Ron and my mom were good friends working for a cause helping the less fortunate in our community. One of the main projects they worked together was the Christmas Breakfast behind the Hale'iwa Post Office. I may have met Ron here and there but not enough to know a special person he was. After my mom's passing, Ron came to me and asked that I take over the food distribution area for the Christmas Event. I wasn't sure that I could fill my mom's shoes. But, Ron thought it would be best and he believed that I could do it and assured me it would be okay. That was encouraging for me and he said I would be making a difference in someone else's life.

Another event Ron got me started was the Once A Month Church, he asked me to be the Food Operation Director. Something new he was planning for our community of homeless, senior citizens, disabled and low income families who needed assistance. Ron's passion was to help as many people he could on a spiritual level and to give to those who felt less fortunate. He brought communities, organizations, City and State Officials, and other denominations together to help.

Ron also enjoyed his time with our North Shore Seniors; he always came by to take pictures and just chat with our elders. He always came and brought food and prayed over our members. He helped us in many ways and participated in our events. In fact, I have pictures of him dancing the "Electric Slide with the elders..." What a blessing for us to know such a special person.

On behalf of the North Shore Seniors and me, Melvin Amantiad, we would like to say, Mahalo Nui Loa Ron for your time with us and the love and encouragement you shared. We Love You! Be at Peace, A Hui Hou (until we meet again). Aloha Ron you will be greatly missed!

"I don't think we can fill Ron's shoes; he had so much positive impact on our community. Pastor Ron devoted his life to helping the less fortunate through his ministry, his food bank, and the Once a Month Church, which recently celebrated its eighth anniversary. Ron remained so completely focused on helping others that almost nobody knew he was sick. He remained active to the very end and he never complained. Pastor Ron Valenciana has secured a special place in our hearts and he will long be remembered for the generous life he shared with so many people."

A Message From State Representative
Gil Riviere

Aloha and Mahalo to Ron Valenciana, for a life well lived.

Some people leave a big wake in their course of life. Pastor Ron Valenciana is one of these individuals. He lived his life for others; his service was true and inspired to the end.

I had the privilege of bestowing an Honorary Certificate from the House of Representatives to the Once a Month Church, commemorating its eight anniversary in June. Ron graciously accepted it, turned to me and said, "Thanks, Gil, this really means a lot to me."

Three weeks later, he passed away and I reflected on his comment. Ron was not thinking about himself, but rather his church and the many people who made it so successful over the years. I believe he wanted the acknowledgement to encourage us to continue good work such as the Once a Month Church and the numerous programs he created for the disadvantaged.

The lesson of Pastor Ron's generous life is that we should all try to find ways to do good. Even in a busy life, we should look for opportunities to help others. Be courteous to strangers, help others when they need a hand, volunteer. Do good for others and you will do good for yourself and your community.

Now, just in case you missed the election results, I will not be your Representative after November 6 because I lost the Primary Election. While we had very impressive support in Hale'iwa and Sunset, I had the added challenge of fighting both my Primary opponent and the passion to defeat Mufi Hannemann.

Many people who would otherwise have voted for me, presumed I was a shoe-in and voted in the Democrat Primary against Mufi. Meanwhile, Richard Fale from Hauula successfully turned out more supporters in Koolauloa to beat me by 76 votes. His opponent in the General Election will be Ululani Beirne from Kahana.

I am sorry that I will not be able to continue serving our community and state in the Legislature. I am proud of some profound successes these past two years and I sincerely appreciate the opportunity to have served you.

Questions, comments and requests are always welcome by calling my office at 586-6380 or by sending an email to RepRiviere@capitol.hawaii.gov. I will serve to the best of my ability until November 6th. Mahalo.

Aloha Ron Valenciana

By Gloria A Gonzales-Moore

Romans 8:38 - For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord

The North Shore has lost one of the most dedicated, loving, committed men in our community. Pastor Ron Valenciana. Owner and Editor of the North Shore News, he provided a voice for everyone in the community. And he kept "dis buggah" free the whole time, knowing it was more important to give than to receive. For over 30 years he has given his talents and gifts to just about everyone I know. As Editor, he helped business owners, Pastors in the community, youth leaders, community representatives, the poor, the homeless and especially the orphans and the widows. His love for the North Shore and its people are vast. He ran the North Shore Food Bank, toys for the kids on Christmas along with a breakfast for the whole community from Turtle Bay, turkey for the community on Thanksgiving, tents for the homeless, and most importantly, prayer and confession time for those seeking the Lord. He didn't do this alone but he was committed to change the world, even if that meant getting the community to help. And they did.

Then the Lord gave him a vision to create the Once a Month Church. He then proceeded to get assistance by asking anyone who would help by telling us that this church would be at Hale'iwa Beach Park once a month, that we would give grocery carts away full of food, clothe the poor, books to read, a Sunday School for kids, balloons, praise and worship then a 10 minute sermon followed by an offering. But instead of taking money, this church gave money to those who registered. And free cars! Unconventional but effective! He asked David Anana (R.I.P.) to prepare stew for about 100 folks for the first service. 300 hundred showed up! For the past 8 years, and every last Sunday of the month since then, hundreds of souls have been saved, many were baptized, relationships with neighbors were made but the best part to me was when he would sit down and ask each child to come and say hi to him. Then he would pray a blessing over their lives and would give them a much needed hug telling them that Jesus loved them. He would also have a slow song play and invite the widows to come have a slow dance with him. He would give them a rose and remind these lonely widows how much God loves them and tell them they are still a very important part of everyone's lives. It was the most touching part of the service that would bring some to tears. He made sure that we provided a good meal, not just a simple meal. We fed hundreds each month with fresh bbq'd chicken, fresh green salad, potatoe salad, rice, hot dogs, cake and plenty of water and juice and coffee to drink. There is so much we can say about this man of God but there isn't enough room in the world to fill it. Someone once asked me "just how many mangoes are there in one mango seed?" Hard to tell once it's planted and Ron Valenciana planted many seeds throughout his life.

He will also be missed at Turtle Bay where he provided worship and a sermon for our visitors passing through. He showed them aloha and represented Hawaii and his Lord Jesus Christ very well. He was able to unite churches and people to work at the Once a Month Church. It was like working in heaven. If you have never gone there, you should. Passion in Action rings true there.

He loved his wife Alexia, his assistant Linda and all those who worked with him. He always said I love you when we spoke and was grateful for the little things. He may have left us physically, but his work, love and legacy will live on forever on the North Shore and in the hearts of those who loved him and worked with him. Aloha Ron, thank you for bringing the example of God's kingdom to earth. You will be missed. And to Alexia. You have a whole community behind you and we love you.

News From Waialua High & Intermediate School

by Principal Mrs. Porrás-Tang

Aloha from Waialua High and Intermediate

Can you believe that summer vacation is over and we are starting the new school year? It seems like only a few weeks ago we bid the class of 2012 aloha and best wishes. 88% of the graduating seniors will be attending a four year, two year or technical school, 7% will be or have enlisted in the military services, and 5% have entered the work force. Students applied to and were accepted to 30 universities nationwide.

Adequate Yearly Progress

Waialua High and Intermediate was the only combined school in the state to meet Adequate Yearly Progress. Hats off to this year's freshman and junior students! 79% met or exceeded reading standards and 82% met or exceeded math standards.

Bulldogs are Recognized

All subject and extra curricula areas worked to showcase students' talents and abilities. Last school year WHIS had three winners in the statewide CTE Showcase: Kekai Albeso-Rivera won 1st place for 1st year student multi-color screen printing, Derek Marks won 1st place for 2+ year student single-color screen printing, and Jasmine Ash won 2nd place for 2+ year student CD/DVD cover design.

Ms. Holdren's history students continually earn honors in the annual Hawaii State History Day competition. Megan Adrada, Dillon, Nahookaika, Ashley Kawahakui, Jewel Kuewa, and Janice Pedro presented at the nationals in College Park, Maryland. To prepare for their presentations, students interviewed Mr. William Paty on plantation history and change and Marsha Joyner on sit-ins and freedom rides. Thanks to 2012 graduates, Nicole Holdren and Cierra Foster, for assisting the students with their projects.

Ms. Arlander, Mr. Lebeau, and Mr. Chang, chaperoned students on their summer learning trip to Boston. Ms. Arlander's students are also part of a Social Studies Exchange program and hosted students from Timberlane Regional High School in Plaistow, NH in March. In 2014 Ms. Arlander is planning to take the students to Italy!

Athletics:

Wrestling: The following athletes placed in their weight class: Treylan Kobayahi - 2nd in states, Charee Wong - 4th in states, Ryanne Murakami- Samala 4th in states. Charee and Ryann are the first female wrestlers in Waialua High School History to place in the HHSAA state tournament.

Softball: Kaili Agabin - OIA division 2 player of the year. Ciara Balidoy - OIA division 2 1st team outfield, Honorable Mention: Michaela Chalker, Gerika Kauua-Acorda, Sabrina Tolentino, Kiara Kamakea, Charee Wong, Gabrielle Maxwell, Nicole Verdadero

Building Bridges to Success

The success of Waialua High and Intermediate is a result of the commitment of students, staff and parents. Most important our success reflects the support of community members and businesses. American Savings awarded the school $190.00 through their new account program! The senior class was awarded $1,331,791.00 in scholarships and grants. Companies, nonprofits, and individuals were acknowledged in the commencement program. Though not recognized, the Tony Group presented a $500 scholarship to a deserving senior.

Aloha Pastor Ron

Waialua High and Intermediate is most grateful to Pastor Ron Valenciana. We extend our aloha and deepest sympathies to Pastor Ron's family. He has been an integral part of the school, chaperoning many field trips, supported the Drug Busters Club, attending school events, and always there when the school needed a hand. Our school's accomplishments are known in our community and island wide due to Pastor Ron encouraging the school to "publish" in the paper and giving "props" at the Once a Month Church. He will be missed by all of us at the school and his legacy of love, kindness and generosity will live on. Aloha Pastor Ron!

Ron, You are Loved and Appreciated

Mahalo for all your endless trips to the Hawaii FoodBank and your dedication assisting the homeless and needy in our community. You will be missed greatly.

Aloha Ron from the North Shore Food Bank volunteers:

Terry, Gloria, Linda, Lani, Lisa, Jules, Roseann, Paige and Mary Jane.

Farewell, Ron

Who will oversee the "North Shore News?"
Or "Operation: Backpack?"
Or "Once A Month Church" where people
flocked from all corners of Oahu?
Or help the homeless with food, pillows and blankets?
Or oversee Xmas gifts for children?
And many more things...
You were tireless.
May you reap in abundance what you sowed
on this earth.
We will miss you, Ron.
More than words can say.*

North Shore Ocean Quest Standup Paddleboard Race

The 4th Annual North Shore Ocean Quest Stand-Up Paddleboard (SUP) Race from Waimea Bay to Haleiwa Alii Beach Park was held on Saturday August 11th with sixty-eight racers from the general public and three 2-person team ocean triathletes (SUP/ Beach-Run/Ocean Swim from Sunset Beach to Ehukai to Rockpiles to Waimea Bay and end at Haleiwa Alii Beach). The early morning overcast skies gave way to a sunny tradewind day with crystal-clear and clean ocean waters. This beautiful natural setting was indeed complimented by the beaming smiles of the SUP "racers" filled with energy and enthusiasm. This FUN-raising activity engaged these weekend-warriors as they tested themselves on a personal level as well as a competitive one against all comers or friends and family. The overall experience showcased why and how we live in Hawaii as everyone appeared to relish the occasion with "Aloha" between each other and "Pono" with our Mother Ocean.

BIG mahalo is extended to the non-profit organizations: the Quiksilver Foundation, the North Shore Lifeguard Association, and the Friends of Alii Beach. Primary financial support was generously provided by: ASP Hawaii, Diamond Head Landscaping, Surf-N-Sea and Mr. Nick Benuska. Special thanks to Mr. Kendall Rust (w/ Josh Reese) of Aloha Surf Lifesaving for donating his Water Safety Personal Water Crafts and lifeguard services for the 4th straight year and ensured all our participants were safe along their journey. Other noteworthy sponsors include: DMM Enterprises, Clark Little Photography, Wendell Toki Jewelry, Haleiwa Joe's, Xcel Wetsuits, North Shore News, Banzai Productions, Surf News Network, Wet Feet HI, Reid Inouye, Paddle Surf HI, SUPConnect, Love's Bakery, and Volcom.

BANZAI NORTH SHORE WIRELESS

Congratulations to our Hawaii Masters team for winning the Gold medal in Nicaragua in July at the ISA World Masters, Colorado Beach. Individual gold medals went to Rochelle Ballard and Sunny Garcia who were rocking the tubes scoring big at the beach break. Waves were great, about 4-6 feet, glassy for the whole event. Hawaii won six of the 20 individual medals awarded with a Silver and Bronze for Kaipo Jaquias and a Bronze for team captain Mike Latronic. Local surfer Rocky Cannon was there to commentate for the event. Congrats to the whole team including Glenn and Nelson.

Aloha to local resident big wave charger Danilo Couto. Couto made history paddling into a massive wave at Jaws last season and now has won the Sion Milosky award for his aloha spirit. Couto is a family man who travels the world chasing big swells. Sion Milosky, from Kauai, lost his life at the age of 35 in a tragic two wave hold down at Maverick's. The award is a special way to remember a beloved surfer.

Contest Directors at Mavericks in California have confirmed the big wave event there. Invitees from Hawaii include Mark Healey, North Shore, Jamie Sterling, North Shore, Dave Wassel, North Shore, Shane Dorian, Big Island. The alternates from here are Danilo Couto, North Shore, Kohl Christensen, North Shore and Garret McNamara, North Shore. The Mavericks Invitational event is scheduled for an open November 1, 2012 and goes through March 31st. The gang there is anticipating an early big wave season at Half Moon Bay, Pillar Point. There was no contest last year due to permits and too small of surf.

Surfer and singer Haumoana from mysterious Rapa Nui is on the North Shore promoting his new CD "Land of Kings". The CD is top rated in Tahiti. Haumoana or Ito is a left handed musician who sings in Rapa Nui, English and Spanish. He is also a great surfer who has won many events in his home land. Ito went to school here and has traveled many places. He hopes to spread the love of his culture through his music. Check him out at facebook/hau-moana!

The Molokai Paddle board Race is 15 years old and had its humble start by athletes from the North Shore. Top paddler Dawson Jones and partners Garrett McNamara and Mike Takahashi put together the first Molokai to Oahu race in July 1997. Takahashi is still race director with Jones and McNamara as Co-Directors. The race on July 29th is dedicated to one of the few paddlers who have done the race all the years, George Ramos. The North Shore's Ramos was diagnosed with stage four cancer and the entire crew has set up a fund for George. To donate, <http://www.active.com/donate/GeorgeRamos>. This will be the first race George has missed. Results next time. The ladies should know that Kanessa Duncan, a Danilo Couto, Jaws, Maui, Paddle In.

World Champion paddler, has set up a non profit to encourage women racers. Get going ladies!

Take care everybody. With Aloha Banzai Betty, banzaib@hawaii.rr.com

Waialua - The Saga of the North Shore

Chapter 16 - The Resolution

By Kalewa

Having sailed the HMS Resolution, followed by the HMS Discovery, from Kealakekua Bay to anchorage 3/4 of a mile off Waimea Bay, on Saturday, February 27, 1779, Captain Clerke continued his journal: "We Anchor'd...Hoisted out the Pinnacle & Cutter in which I went ashore. On landing I was recieved with every token of respect and friendship by the great number of Natives who were collected upon the occasion; they every one of them prostrated themselves around me which is the first mark of respect at these Isles...I immediately made motions for them to rise; when one who seem'd the most consequential of this assembly arose and came forward with a Pig and a piece of cloth in his Hand with which he presented me, the same time making a long ceremonious speech...I understand so much of the matter that he talk'd about Hogs, Tarrow, & of which he promis'd I should have abundance."

Meanwhile, aboard the Discovery, surgeon Samwell wrote: "The Girls ...performed a dance on the Quarter deck which we had not seen before, it might be perhaps to express their Joy on their safe arrival at this place, it was performed by two at a time - they did not jump up as in the common dance but used a kind of regular Step & moved their Legs something like our sailors dancing a Hornpipe, they moved their Arms up and down, repeated a Song together, changed their places often, wriggled their backsides and used many lascivious Gestures. Upon the whole we thought it much more agreeable than their common Dance."

His commanding officer, Lieutenant King later penned that "We were sorry in finding the Water...a wide marshy Meadow, to be mixt with Salt water; & it continued this brachish taste for 2 hundred Yards when it became perfectly fresh, & a pleasing murmuring river. I walked a little further & observed it to be the produce of 2 branches, or small streams or rivers, that come down 2 Valleys. to the right of a remarkable & romantick bluff head, about 1/2 mile from the Sea. At the bottom of this flt swampy place, the bank of this river as well as the face of this NW part of Wo`ahoo was as beautiful as any Island we have seen, and appeared very well Cultivated & Popular; they told us here that most of the Men were gone to Morotoi to fight..., that their Chief Perree`orannee was not gone; & upon hearing of our Arrival would Certainly be here in two or three days, When we should get a profusion of refreshments."

Lieutenant King was soon to make the first written comment about our famous winter surf: "I was sent to examine farther to Leeward, but could not get near the Shore, from the rocky ground running off the Shore 1/2 a Mile or more, We got into the break of the Sea before we were well aware of our situation."

Samwerll: "The Resolution's Cutter...returned without having found a place for Watering..." (Lieutenant King was in command of the Discovery, but it was that vessel's cutter that had been stolen back in Kealakekua Bay, setting off the chain of events which led to Captain Cook's death).

King: "The Capt'n (Clerke) concluded that it would be much more tedious to water here than at Atoui, determind for the latter place."

Samwell: "...about six o'Clock both Ships got under Weigh having first sent all the Girls on shore at this place. They would willingly have accompanied us further, but at last we came to think that they had spread the news of our Misfortune far enough."

Lieutenant King finally wrote: "We were all sorry in leaving this very pleasant Island, & lamenting that we had spent so much time in worse places."
