A Heartwarming Thanksgiving Story

By Anonymous

A blind boy sat on the steps of a building with a hat by his feet. He held up a sign which read "I am blind," please help.

There were only a few coins in his hat.

A man was walking by. He took a few coins from his pocket and dropped them into the hat. He then took the sign, turned it around, and wrote some words. He put the sign back so that everyone who walked by would see the new words.

Soon the hat began to fill up. A lot more people were giving money to the blind boy. That afternoon the man who changed the sign came to see how things were.

The boy recognized his footsteps and asked, "Were you the one who changed my sign this morning? What did you write?"

The man said, "I only wrote the truth, I said what you said but in a different way." I wrote: "Today is a beautiful day but I cannot see it."

Both signs told the people that the boy was blind. But the first sign simply said the boy was blind. The second sign told people that they were so lucky that they were not blind. Should we be surprised that the second sign was more effective?

Moral of the Story: Be thankful for what you have. Be creative. Be innovative. Think differently and positively. When life gives you 100 reasons to cry, show life that you have a 1000 reasons to smile. Face your past without regret. Handle your present with confidence. Prepare for the future without fear. Keep the faith.

The most beautiful thing is to see a person smiling. And even more beautiful, is knowing that you are the reason behind it! Happy Thanksgiving!

Matsumoto
Serving You in District 45

Aloha Friends and Neighbors!

As we gear up for the upcoming legislative session, my office is preparing a 2019 Legislative Info Survey to send to constituents of District 45. To best represent your interests, I need your participation in completing and returning the survey. If you live in the district and do not receive a survey by the end of November, please call my office at (808) 586-9490 or send me an email at RepMatsumoto@Capitol.Hawaii.Gov and we'll assist you. The deadline to submit the survey is on December 21st. Your opinions matter to me, and I look forward to reading all your responses!

With Thanksgiving upon us, I can't help but reflect on the many things for which I am very grateful. On behalf of my 'ohana and staff at the Capitol, I would like to wish you and your loved ones a joyous, fun, and healthy holiday season! The holidays are a time for families and friends to get together to share 'ono food and good times. As we celebrate Thanksgiving, I want to say mahalo for the honor and privilege of serving as the State Representative for District 45 and for putting your trust in me as your public servant. I am committed to representing you and the needs of the community and our State!

Last month, I was part of the Legislative Host Committee for the "Empowering All Abilities" Reverse Job Fair! This was an event for persons with developmental disabilities, in which prospective employers were invited to visit booths, created by the job seekers, showcasing their interests, strengths, and abilities. This was a "reverse job interview" where the job candidates brought display boards filled with their qualifications, experiences, and strengths, and a conference room and space was set up for employers to walk through each of the job candidates' display boards and conduct on-site interviews! More than 100 employers, Human Resource professionals, and 50 job seekers attended this inaugural and collaborative fair. Mahalo to all the employers who participated in this event!

In a representative government such as ours, I value what you think and feel, as this allows me to be a more effective legislator. As always, please feel free to contact me if you have questions or concerns about any happenings in our community. Call me at (808) 586-9490, email RepMatsumoto@Capitol.Hawaii.gov, or visit RepMatsumoto.com.

The Great Thanksgiving of 1918

by Captain Rick Rogers

One hundred years ago, Thanksgiving was a very special holiday. The wires were alive with the news that Great War in Europe was over. Most of the 10,000 men and women from the Territory of Hawaii who served in the Great war had yet to return to the islands. More than 100 would not.

The first of the post-war tourists were arriving via the luxurious steam vessels. The well-heeled travelers might spend a day or two at the Royal Hawaiian or Moana Hotels in Waikiki, before boarding the Oahu Railroad and Land Company's train for an excursion to the North Shore. The better passenger cars were towards the front of the train. Whistle stops may be made at the Aiea and Ewa Mills, Nanakuli and again at the Waianae Station.

Kaena Point was rounded as the train turned into the wind. Wires had been strung adjacent to the tracks, so if the train was stopped for some unforeseen reason the engineer could toss a phone wire over the land line and communicate with operators around the island. The primary destination for the more affluent passengers was the Haleiwa Hotel, which had opened in 1898, just a year before the line was completed all the way to the Kahuku Plantation.

Standing in front of the Haleiwa Hotel, visitors were struck by the symmetry of the edifice. Large lawns slopped to the water's very edge. No better view of the splashing surf could be imagined. Inside, one found the finest hardwood floors. Beautiful paintings graced the walls. The service-ware, even the gardeners tools, were of the very finest quality to be found west of the Mississippi.

The first floor was devoted to the office, parlor, dining room, and kitchen. The dining room occupied the west and the parlor the east end of the building. A broad stairway lead to the second floor, which was devoted to the sleeping compartments. The front rooms overlooking the ocean were single, while the end and mauka rooms were en suite, with bath, and a telephone available for "central connection". The entire building and four of the cottages were equipped with electric lighting supplied by the hotel's own power plant. Water was supplied from a natural spring.

After being shown about the premises the guests were seated before a sumptuous Thanksgiving repast, complete with all the traditional trimmings and the finest delicacies which had been shipped in from San Francisco. After dinner, the men retired to one of the western cottages, which had been outfitted as a billiard room. They smoked Cuban cigars and discussed the other amenities. There was a stable set up across the road for those that wished to explore the Waialua Sugar Plantation. Canoes and rowboats were available for hire along the stream. The sportsman could book space at the "Men's Lodge", a thatched roof log cabin located five miles inland at Puukapu, where shooting sports were popular.

There was much to be thankful for in 1918, now that Great World War was over.

KAILUA SURFER BRISA HENNESSY QUALIFIES FOR THE WCT, JUMPS SHIP TO COSTA RICA

One of Hawaii's best women surfers has made the World Tour! Brisa Hennessy hails from Kailua on Oahu. She qualified for the elite championship tour, the WCT, after a equal third place finish at the final 6000 event, the Port Stephens Toyota Pro and will start her WCT campaign April 3, 2019 at the Gold Coast Pro. Her final ranking 7th overall in the qualifying series, WQS. Here is the bad news. Hennessy is now officially surfing for Costa Rica because of the possibility of surfing in the Olympics. Another local Sunset Beach surfer Mahina Maeda made the quarter finals ending up in 14th place overall in the WQS. She has also jumped ship to surf for Japan. Maeda barely missed qualifying, the dream continues for her. Go girls, we will still be rooting for you! A big congratulations to Brisa Hennessy!

BETHANY HAMILTON IS TRULY UNSTOPPABLE

Bethany Hamilton's new movie, "Unstoppable" has fantastic surfing in it. Finally a movie that showcases her athletic ability in the water and not the tragic tale of a shark encounter. Hamilton has definitely moved on from that and wants to keep it that way. There is a two minute plus surfing montage in the movie that shows remarkable surfing and then later she rides a giant wave at Jaws. The movie takes you on a great ride with great vintage footage of Bethany, her charge to the top ranks of contest surfing and then to having her first child, Tobias. It leaves you wondering, what is next for the star athlete. The movie was directed by Aaron Lieber and is a must see!

CONGRATS TO ALL OUR GRADS!

A big shout out to all our University of Hawaii Graduates. The mid year commencement ceremony is December 15th at the Stan Sheriff Center and one of our own will be in cap and gown! Big congratulations to Tina Cohen who is graduating with a marketing and business degree. According to her dad, professional photographer Paul Cohen, she financed herself the whole way through! Not an easy task with college expenses now a days. No better way to celebrate than to go surfing! Way to go Tina Cohen and all our grads!

ADVENTURE FILMS & CHANGING TIDES FOUNDATION TEAM UP FOR TOUR

The Changing Tides Foundation group got together to do their part to raise awareness and address social, environmental, health and safety concerns in the places they visit, because "together we are better". Their mission is to bridge gaps between travelers and causes on the ground in the places people go and with the local people you might meet. There is no better way than film to bring these community services and adventures to the public. Teaming up with the Women's Adventure Film Tour was a great way to celebrate these experiences and adventures that Women create, to see the extraordinary things Women are doing. They have brought the films here to the North Shore at Waimea Valley, November 24th, to showcase about 24 films. # Getting a Driver License or State ID Can Be Quick and Convenient

By Sheri Kajiwarra

It's the end of the notorious long wait in line for your license renewal. Oahu residents are now offered the convenience of making an advance appointment to renew a driver license or state identification card and be done in under 30 minutes.

Appointments times are the latest customer-service offer to access basic government services more efficiently. Since introducing the new system in April of this year, it has been a game changer for those who use it, providing a quick and convenient way to do business.

We've housed all the related tools you'll need for success on one easy site: license.honolulu.gov where you can:

- Access our interactive document guide and be comfortable that you have all the necessary documents in hand.
- Make an appointment up to three months in advance at nine different locations across the island.
- Find locations and hours. It may be helpful to know that our five driver licensing centers process only licenses and state IDs, so they have the capacity to handle more volume per day. Our Satellite City Halls manage a variety of city services, from vehicle registration and handicap placards, to dog licensing, bill payments and moped and bicycle registrations. Satellites manage a smaller percentage of license and ID renewals.
- Access application forms and fill them out ahead of time for faster processing.
- Cancel your unneeded appointment using the confirmation code provided when scheduling. You will help the next person needing an appointment.

When making an appointment on line or via your smartphone, you will be asked to enter a phone number. The last four digits of that number will be your ticket number on site. If it is text-capable, you will receive a text confirmation with a unique code. Save this. That text offers a quick one-click cancellation option at the bottom. Or print out the confirmation code online and save that.

Other helpful tips:

- Bring a recent vision certificate from your eye doctor and avoid the onsite eye test.
- Know that temporary paper cards are not acceptable as identification at U.S. airport security checkpoints. As it may take up to six weeks to receive your permanent card in the mail, plan your renewal around your trips. If you have not received your card by then, leave your name and contact at 768-9128 and we'll check on the status of your envelope. For security reasons, licenses and IDs cannot be mailed to business addresses and they cannot be forwarded to an alternate address. If you did not provide your primary residential address, as recognized by the US post office, the card will be returned to us as undeliverable. You will need to make another visit bringing two new documents showing your valid address and pay $6 for the address to be updated and the card replaced.

- A license or ID can be renewed six months in advance (still retaining your birthday expiration) so people are encouraged to schedule well ahead of time so the new card is received before the old one expires. We all need less stress in our lives. Remember, state law does not allow you to drive with an expired license.

With an appointment, all the correct documents in hand along with a completed application form and arriving 10 minutes before your appointment, getting your driver license or state ID should be quick and easy.
